The Marvel Rebirth style relaunch is now called Marvel Legacy. Legacy characters, Legacy numbering, even a return to corner box art which was always a favorite. We are very excited about this! However, we are not excited about fans coming in complaining outloud about making Cap evil, how they have vested interests in their characters, how Marvel should have made a villain with a shield who was bad, and where are your Deadpools? Or the guys that came in last week telling us how Marvel is always ahead of the curve, that Rebirth is a copy of the upcoming relaunch, and where are your Deadpools? RELAX FOLKS! Secret Empire is Flashpoint! When Flash went back in time to save his mother he created the Flashpoint Universe, and when he realized that wouldn't work and he fixed it the changes that couldn't be fixed became the new 52 which is now being refined (by Dr. Manhattan ????) in Rebirth. When the humanized portion of the Cosmic Cube changed Cap it changed both Cap's and Marvel's history. I'll bet you a nicked at the end of Secret Empie (or maybe Generations) when the Cosmic Cube fixes Cap the changes that can't be fixed will be forefront in Marvel Legacy! Just sit back, strap it down and enjoy the ride. We are all just hoping for good art, good story and some good comics! When DC and Marvel are both strong it's good for the entire Comics Industry! And BTW.....where are our Deadpools?
